

All department heads are reminded that the annual performance review cycle opens on October 1. Managers must submit preliminary evaluations through the internal portal by October 15 to ensure timely processing. Employees who have transferred between departments during the current fiscal year should coordinate with both their former and current supervisors to ensure a complete assessment. Questions regarding the review criteria or scoring rubric may be directed to the Human Resources office during regular business hours.